Important Information

Coca Cola Sale: Coke Sale ends September 7th at midnight. Please help spread the word. Every student is asked to find at least one buyer.

Etowah County EXPO: The County EXPO has been postponed due to the number of bands dealing with extreme absenteeism from COVID-19. It is being re-imagined as a community event and will likely be re-scheduled for October. That date will now be a normal rehearsal day.

In Class: Don't forget water jugs and comfortable clothes/sunscreen/sunglasses etc. as we will be going outside during 8th period this week while taking plenty of breaks.

Gameday Itinerary: A detailed band schedule for Friday's game along with our procedures and guidelines has been posted to the blog. Students and parents, please read over it at <https://www.theprideofsouthside.com/blog/game-day-itinerary-september-10-2021-southside-oxford>

Things Not to Forget: LONG black socks; hair can't touch your collar and must be able to fit inside your hat; black gloves; water jugs are required at the game (already filled); pom poms; no unnatural hair color or painted nails in uniform; and....GO PANTHERS!
