IV. President-The small trailer needs to be repaired or wrapped. Mr. Waits suggested just pressure washing it now to remove all the peeling. We are awaiting the donation from Rainbow City for the trailer. Jot form was recently renewed. We may move to Square if it works for all our needs.

Kevin Bailed calked and sealed. The TV mount was moved down in front of a window not in use. Coca Cola cooler is repaired, and well as new menus. New items offered will be Conecuh Sausage, Philly Cheese Steaks, El Tapatio cheese dip, boiled peanuts, and pickle pops. We may also add freeze dried candy. We will have Barone's pizza by the slice. Water count for the visiting band will be needed each week. Home game provided meal count will also be received.

VI. 2nd Vice President- We survived band camp! The medical bag was restocked. The bag was donated by Kevin Bailey from the Fire Department. Can we get a meal for the last game? We will need to put the alternate members in the black jackets. Chaperones numbers same as last year starting with the board. Clay Massey will pull the trailer every week per Dorothea.

VII. 3rd Vice President- Fundraising Committee-Car wash will be at Bucket and Belles on September 9, 2023. August 27, 2023 will be Painting with The Pride Day. VIII. Directors- The water jugs are $9.75 each if we order 68, and $8.75 if we order 102. We could sell hats for $20.00. The cheaper screen-print uniforms may be something we want to look at?
