Important Information

New Calendar – Same Location: The band's official calendar is now a Google Calendar which gives you the ability to subscribe and receive real-time updates and to integrate directly into your smart device if you want. It is still located on our website under the "Calendar" tab. View it at: https://www.theprideofsouthside.com/

Concert Formal Ware: Everyone's formal concert attire should be available now from B Kintz on Broad St. in Gadsden. Please be sure you have paid for orders and taken all steps to ensure the correct fit. Our first performance wearing formal wear will be February 16th's MPA Preview Concert followed quickly by State MPA at the end of Feb/beginning of March (exact date sent by ABA at a later date). Please review the following guidelines and rules of formalwear:

Gentlemen
- Black dress socks (half-calf length)
- No graphic tees as undershirts
- No wrist jewelry to be worn with formalwear
- Keep shoes clean and polished
- No unnatural hair coloring
- Any facial hair must be TRIM (includes the back of necks)
- No facial piercings

Ladies
- Pearl necklaces provided – no other necklaces allowed
- Simple earrings and rings only – no wrist jewelry
- Appropriate undergarments must be worn and not be visible
- Flat close-toed shoes (no heels)
- No unnatural hair coloring
- No facial piercings

Required Materials: Parents, please review the required materials section of the handbook. Our ensembles' success depends on every member having what they need. Students' grades are held accountable to this standard as well.

Monday Night Classes: Our wonderful instructors and staff are looking to get the jump on preparing the next generation of The PRIDE for the 2023 marching season. Classes will happen after school on Mondays beginning on the 23rd. Please see the details below:

Tuba Class: Mondays 3:15 to 4:30 pm with Mr. Weaver (not required, but highly encouraged)
For any and all tuba/euphonium students grades 7-11 who want to get better at the instrument, play fun and more challenging music, and to learn more about tuba performance.

Drum Class: Mondays 5:30 to 7 pm with Percussion Instructors (not required, highly encouraged)
For any and all percussion students grades 7-11 who want to get better at drumming and the percussive arts, play fun and more challenging music, and to get prepared for Drumline auditions.

Colorguard Class: Mondays 5:30 to 7 pm with Guard Instructors (not required, highly encouraged)
For any ladies in the RMS/SHS Band 7-11 who are interested in being a member of The PRIDE's Colorguard. Instructors will cover all of the basic fundamentals of Colorguard. These classes supplement (not replace) clinics in March.
